DATE: 24.08.2022

TIMING: 8.30 a.m. - 9.00 a.m.

THEME: SCHOOL'S MISSION- VALUE SYSTEMS

Topic: How School Sensitizes Students on Value Based Education

The ostentatious event of Std. IX F shone under the folds of bright nature on 24th August 2022. Nourished with enthusiastic audience, the day commenced with the Pride of the DAV Gaan and the grace of the Almighty in shape of the Gayatri Mantra. Heading next, the National Pledge was rendered by Raghunandan P.K. and all the gathered paid their due regards of patriotism and remembered their reverence to our Nation.

The red carpet of the day was rolled out through a wonderful oration presented by Abhijay followed by enthralling dance performance to the classical notes of Apoorva Soundararajan and Sanjana S. To bring out the tinges of the theme, an interactive session on 'What actually is Value Based Education' was skilfully elucidated by Jyothyshwar T, Lohith Sreeram and Padmanaban M.

Ritesh Mannem took the audience to the quintessence of the day by throwing light on school's endeavour to impart Value Based Education among students. Hospitality was verbalized as an anecdote, by Lokesh Krishnan Vijayan, a new student to the DAV family. Moral Values were instilled through Thirukkural and Dohas.

Integrity was portrayed through a mime act by our thespians Monish S., Riya T. Tharun A. and Venkatanathan S. The famous annotation of Veerapandiya Kattabomman was showcased by Raghav A. A fantabulous quiz was presented on various instances of daily life where school's ventures helped students to nurture values and virtues of life. The quiz concluded with an amazing hangman on the Indian virtue of VASUDHAIVA KUTUMBAKAM. The amusing episode of the pursuit that symbolised unity amalgamated with coordination and collaboration was the Dance. The dancers set the arena on fire and glees of enthusiasm.

At the end-line, Ashley Karen Sylvia M. extended a token of gratitude to the audience who gave their valuable presence and brought life to the event. The day concluded by the National Anthem and Shanti Paat.
